Proclamation of the Mayor

WHEREAS, Kleefstra Syndrome is a rare genetic disorder characterized by intellectual disability, low muscle tone, severe expressive speech delay, and a distinctive facial appearance with a spectrum of additional features. It is estimated about 1 in 25,000 individuals are born with this condition; and

WHEREAS, people living with this condition may also suffer from seizures, sleep disorders, autism, developmental delays, regressive behavior, and more; and

WHEREAS, addressing the complex medical needs early in life is imperative to helping families successfully care for their children at home. The need for more education, awareness, and support for families is desperately needed; and

WHEREAS, it is appropriate that one day each year should be set apart from the rest and be known as Kleefstra Syndrome Awareness Day, this day shall be on September 17th; and

WHEREAS, IDefine; a nonprofit charitable organization founded by parents, wants to help support these individuals through our continued efforts of empowering families, fueling research and educating communities; and

NOW, THEREFORE, I, John Corbitt, as Mayor of the City of White House, and on behalf of the entire Board of Mayor and Aldermen, do hereby proclaim September 17th, 2023, to be known in the City of White House as

and urge our citizens, patients, caregivers, medical professionals, and all agencies and organizations interested in supporting these families to unite on that day in observance of such exercises.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the City of White House to be affixed on this 17th day of August 2023.

John Corbitt
